

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Upsilon Nu Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated was chartered October 11, 1971 in Mechanicsville, Virginia.

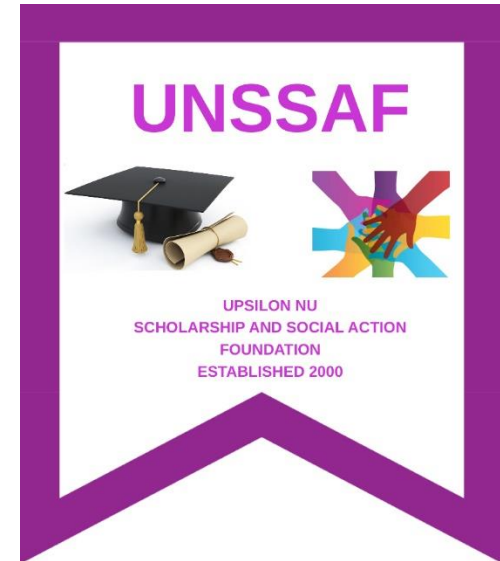

In 1976, Upsilon Nu Chapter established the Kavansa B. Smith Memorial Scholarship Fund in memory of founder Kavansa B. Smith. Brother Smith was a teacher at Thompson Middle School in Richmond.

The Chapter has awarded scholarships annually to deserving Richmond area high school graduates ranging from book awards to $1000 awards. The maximum annual total amount awarded has been $12,000, with the total awards being in excess of $290,000.

Upsilon Nu meets its annual obligation to the Fraternity's national initiatives involving Scholarship and Social Action. Programs include contributions / membership in the NAACP, UNCF, and American Cancer Society.

Upsilon Nu Chapter has shown its commitment to the cardinal principle of Scholarship through the establishment of the Upsilon Nu Scholarship and Social Action Foundation. The foundation received its 501(c)(3) charitable organization status in July 2000. Gifts to the foundation may be tax deductible.
